Rothschild & Co Bank AG: Trading Venues

This document lists the most important trading venues used by Rothschild & Co Bank AG. Other trading venues not listed may also be used if deemed appropriate or more advantageous for the client. The Bank acts as the principle in the transaction to ensure the best possible execution for the client.

For trading venues where the Bank is member, orders can either be placed with the Bank acting as an agent or through a broker network given market conditions or client preference. For all trading venues where is not a member the broker network must always be used.
