Rothschild & Co appoints Sophie Kilvert as Client Adviser to UK Wealth Management business

Rothschild & Co has appointed Sophie Kilvert as a Director in its Wealth Management business, based in London.

Sophie has more than 15 years' experience working with a wide variety of high net worth individuals and their families, as well as corporate and charity clients.

She joins Rothschild & Co from Seven Investment Management LLP (7IM), where she was a Private Client Manager, having joined in 2004. Before this, she worked for a firm of solicitors after graduating with an MA in Politics, Philosophy & Economics from Oxford University in 2000. Sophie joins Rothschild & Co with immediate effect.

"Sophie's depth of client experience and portfolio management knowledge, combined with her ability to create long-standing relationships, make her a real asset in meeting the continuing growth in demand for Rothschild & Co's wealth management services from successful individuals, families and foundations," said Helen Watson, CEO of Rothschild & Co's Wealth Management business in the UK. "Our focus on helping clients to preserve and grow the real value of their wealth through a distinctive investment approach, combined with exceptional client service, has enabled us to double assets under management in the UK to more than £10bn over the last five years. We are delighted that Sophie has chosen to join the team."
