

Press release

Hong Kong, 17 September 2018

Rothschild Global Advisory appoints Peter Ding as Managing Director and Executive Vice Chairman of Greater China

Rothschild Global Advisory (RGA), part of the Rothschild & Co Group, today announced that Peter Ding will join the firm as Managing Director and Executive Vice Chairman for Greater China, effective 18 September 2018.

Mr Ding will be based in the Hong Kong office and work together with RGA teams in Greater China and around the world with a particular focus on client origination in mainland China and the strategic development of the business in the region. Mr Ding has over 20 years' experience in Asian investment banking. Most recently, he was a founding partner of Quintus Partners, having previously been Managing Director and Head of Greater China Investment Banking at Barclays. Prior to joining Barclays he was also Co-Head of M&A for Asia at Morgan Stanley, and Co-Head of Investment Banking at UBS Securities China.

Commenting on the appointments, Robert Leitão, Managing Partner at Rothschild & Co, said, "The senior appointment of Peter Ding in Greater China further enhances Rothschild & Co's global reach and long-standing track record in Asia as a leading financial advisory business."

The news follows the recent appointment of Elizabeth Wang as Head of RGA in Greater China, leading the office in the region and advising clients on their financial and strategic transactions. Commenting on the appointment, Ms Wang said, "Peter has an excellent reputation and background in the region, and we are delighted to welcome him to the team."
