

Richard Luddington joins Rothschild & Co as Senior Adviser

London, 27 January 2021

Rothschild & Co is pleased to announce that it has appointed Richard Luddington as a Senior Adviser. Based in the UK, Richard will provide advice to clients across Rothschild & Co's Global Advisory division, focusing primarily on sovereign and quasi-sovereign clients in the CEE and EMEA regions.

Richard has over 30 years' experience in global capital markets, having spent the last seven years as Vice Chairman of Global Capital Markets at Morgan Stanley. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley Richard worked at JP Morgan and UBS, where his roles included Global Head of Emerging Markets Syndicate, Head of CEEMEA Debt Capital Markets, Head of Sovereign Advisory Group, and Co-Head of Emerging Markets client coverage.

Commenting on the appointment, Rothschild & Co said: "Richard has developed a deep network of international client relationships over the course of his career, particularly in emerging markets. He is an experienced and thoughtful capital markets adviser, and his guidance will be of immense value to our Global Advisory clients as they navigate today's challenging business environment. We are delighted to welcome him to the team."

Richard Luddington said: "Rothschild & Co is an outstanding firm with a proud history and tradition of delivering best-in-class advice to clients. I have long admired the firm's culture and the quality of its people, and look forward to working with the Sovereign Advisory team to support their clients around the world."
