Rothschild & Co has appointed Tim Eastwood to establish a new team for its Wealth Management business across the Midlands.

Tim joins Rothschild & Co from Credit Suisse where he was Head of Ultra High Net-Worth UK International Wealth Management. He joins with immediate effect and will be based in Birmingham, working closely with Rothschild & Co's Global Advisory business, established here more than 20 years ago.

"We are delighted to welcome Tim to the team. Our assets have continued to grow substantially in the last 12 months and, with the momentum we are seeing across our business, opening another regional office is a natural progression. Tim's experience, industry connections and local network across the Midlands make him the ideal choice to establish our new wealth management team here," said Helen Watson, CEO of Rothschild & Co's UK Wealth Management business.

"Our Manchester Wealth Management business has grown strongly since it was set up almost six years ago, serving clients across the North of England and beyond. By working with our Global Advisory colleagues, we have not only been able to guide business owners' through the successful sale of their companies, but also advise them on how best to preserve and grow these proceeds for their family's long-term security. We are confident that Tim has the right skills and track record to emulate this success across the region."

Tim has more than 14 years' experience in the wealth management industry, most recently as Team Head, at Credit Suisse in Zurich. Tim initially started work as a Client Advisor for UBS Global UHNW UK Domestic team in London (2007-2017) before relocating to Zurich with UBS as a Relationship Manager in its UHNW UK International team (2018-19). He moved to Credit Suisse's Zurich office in 2019, becoming head of the UHNW UK International team soon after. Prior to his career in Wealth Management, Tim spent 5 years in the British Army.
