Rothschild & Co's Wealth Management business receives award for best HNW Team (International Clients)

Rothschild & Co's Wealth Management business has been named the best HNW Team (International Clients) at the WealthBriefing Swiss Awards 2020. The award is made to the bank that stands out for its all-encompassing advisory network for international clients, and whose international network is optimised to meet the needs of this group.

Laurent Gagnebin, CEO of Rothschild & Co Bank in Switzerland, commented, "We're really delighted to accept this award, which recognises our commitment to our clients and developing our Swiss advisory model. Our international clients value the fact that with Rothschild & Co's comprehensive wealth management offering, they have a partner they can rely on in any situation. We offer our clients global investment perspectives and support with cross-border investments. This award demonstrates that the panel of judges was also very impressed by Rothschild & Co's global network of more than 3,500 experts."

WealthBriefing is a network of news portals for the wealth management industry. Its annual awards go to banks and wealth managers that have accomplished outstanding achievements and set high standards in the industry. This year marks the seventh time the prestigious WealthBriefing Awards have been awarded in Switzerland. The ceremony took place on 6 February at a gala event in Geneva.
