Proxy voting report

The past year was marked with uncertainty surrounding the future; conflicts raging from Ukraine to the Middle East and tensions between the largest global players have made many stakeholders nervous about their assets.

Due to these developments, ambitious sustainability actions at companies and broad support by shareholders for increased action faced resistance. However, this did not stop shareholders, for whom sustainable development continues to be a high priority, from submitting corresponding proposals for voting at companies' annual general meetings. This is also shown by the number of shareholder proposal the Bank has voted on, which increased from 63 in 2022 to 89 in 2023.

Given these challenging times, one should not forget about the importance of pressing issues regarding sustainable development, such as climate change or human rights and the transformation we investors can bring through Responsible Stewardship as part of our Fiduciary duty towards our clients.

APPROACH

Throughout the year, Rothschild & Co Bank AG (the Bank) adhered to its responsible investing principles and continued to be an active shareholder in its portfolio companies. This was emphasized by its proxy voting activities. In 2023, the Bank voted on most of the companies whose equities were held in the Bank's funds and discretionary mandates. For its sustainability research, the Bank relies on the research provided by MSCI ESG Research LLC (UK)¹ as well as proxy voting recommendations from Institutional Shareholder Service (ISS). ISS's recommendations are based on a socially responsible investing (SRI) policy² that the Bank considers to be most in line with its own sustainability principles and ESG investing approach.

SRI considers not only sustainable returns and good governance of a company, but also the ethical behavior as well as social and environmental impacts of a company's actions. The Bank's equity analysts assess and analyze ISS's recommendations by also collaborating with the research teams of other asset and wealth management units of the Rothschild & Co Group and submit their final voting recommendations to the Investment Committee of the Bank for validation (please see our stewardship guidelines for further information).

ACTIVITY

In 2023, Rothschild & Co Bank AG voted at the shareholder meetings of 54 companies (compared to 45 in 2022).

In total, the Bank voted on 1'097 proposals (vs 816 in 2022), of which 977 were submitted by management and 89 by shareholders. 31 proposals were either non-voting items³ or the Bank withheld its vote.

The Bank voted "for" 879 proposals, corresponding to 80% of the total proposals (figure 1). In 17% of the cases, the Bank voted "against".⁴

VOTING RECOMMENDATIONS OF ROTHSCHILD & CO VERMÖGENSVERWALTUNG GMBH IN 2023

Our subsidiary in Germany had its first year of full voting activities in 2023. The general approach follows the Bank's guidelines. Until now, the voting process has only concerned the core investments held across funds/sub-funds of the investment management company, Axxion S.A. 15, rue de Flaxweiler, L-6776 Grevenmacher, for which Rothschild & Co Vermögensverwaltung GmbH is mandated as a portfolio manager.

Rothschild & Co Vermögensverwaltung GmbH is not the owner of the voting rights and therefore does not exercise them. Instead, it provides the investment management company with voting recommendations which are in-line with the Bank's guidelines.

Figure 7 shows the recommendations of Rothschild & Co Vermögensverwaltung GmbH, Börsenstraße 2-4, D-60313 Frankfurt am Main (portfolio manager) on how to exercise the voting rights in the portfolio companies held by the sub-funds in the legal form of a stock corporation or a legal form comparable to a stock corporation. This is in accordance with the national laws of the respective portfolio companies that applied to the investment management company in 2023.
