3. Assessing suitability before we provide services

Where we agree to provide you with Discretionary Investment Management or Advisory Investment Management services, we assess which investments are suitable for you before we invest on your behalf.

TOPIC	SUMMARY
The information we use for our assessment	As part of our suitability assessment process, we gather information about you during conversations or meetings with you, or based on documents you share with us. The information we collect will include details about: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Your knowledge and experience of different types of financial instruments,▪ Your financial situation, and your ability to bear loss, and▪ Your investment objectives and tolerance for investment risk.
The documentation we give you	When we have conducted our suitability assessment, we provide you with a Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. This document outlines our understanding of your circumstances and explains why we think your specific investment strategy, or strategies, are suitable for you. You may have multiple Portfolios with different objectives. The Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review will explain our approach for each Portfolio. We will monitor the suitability of your Portfolio(s) and may suggest changes. Where we are providing you with Advisory Investment Management services, we provide you with a suitability report in relation to each transaction we carry out for you, and will provide you with an annual suitability assessment.
What we ask of you	It is important that all the information about you that we use to create the Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review is up to date throughout our relationship. In order to continue to act in your best interests, we will need you to tell us if anything changes which might affect the information in your Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. Changes could include your risk profile, financial circumstances or investment objectives.

4. The services we provide to you

We treat you as a retail client which affords you the highest amount of consumer protection. If you wish to be treated as a different client type (e.g. professional), please tell us.

We will have confirmed the date we started providing services to you during the Account opening process. If you are unclear what services we are providing to you or when we started providing services, please contact your Client Adviser.

In the table below, we describe the types of services which we can provide to you. We may sub-contract or delegate these services to one of our group entities or to another party.

WHAT WE WILL DO	WHAT THIS MEANS
Discretionary Investment Management	When we provide Discretionary Investment Management services, we manage your Portfolio in line with the strategy laid out in your Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. The Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review provides parameters for how we can invest on your behalf. This means that within these boundaries, we can take the following action without telling you in advance: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Buying, selling, reinvesting and realising investments, and▪ Negotiating and executing documentation and agreements on your behalf in relation to your Portfolio
Advisory Investment Management	When we provide Advisory Investment Management Services, we give you investment advice in line with your Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. You decide whether to buy, hold or sell investments. We will only carry out transactions on your instructions. We only recommend a limited range of products. We do not advise on pension, life assurance or saving scheme products.
Execution-only	When we provide Execution-only services, we only carry out transactions on your specific instructions. We will not give you investment advice, or manage or monitor the Portfolio for you. We will warn you if we think that an execution-only transaction is not appropriate for you. If you decide to carry out that transaction despite our warning, we will not take responsibility. We don't have to follow your instructions if we think this would be appropriate for our own protection.

WHAT WE WILL DO

WHAT THIS MEANS

Custody

R&Co Bank acts as the custodian of your Assets and provides associated banking services to you, unless you have written to us to specify a different custodian. R&Co Bank opens and operates custody and bank accounts for you as necessary. As your Assets and Cash will be held outside the UK, they will not be subject to the UK rules on the protection of client money and assets.

When we provide custody for Assets

R&Co Bank will maintain detailed records of your Assets so that they can be traced back to you in the unlikely event it goes insolvent. R&Co Bank is entitled to have financial instruments held in safe custody in its own or external collective custody accounts, or with a central collective depository in Switzerland or abroad.

You authorise R&Co Bank to administer the Assets for you, this means that R&Co Bank will exercise rights attached to the Assets at its discretion (such as voting or participating in corporate actions). R&Co Bank will claim and receive dividends and other entitlements for you.

R&Co Bank will also have a lien over the Assets it holds for you, this means that R&Co Bank can sell or realise these Assets to satisfy any unpaid sums that you owe us. You cannot grant any security interest over your Portfolio to anyone else without R&Co Bank's prior written consent.

Additional restrictions and requirements apply if you want to hold Funds with Special Risks in your Account.

When we provide custody for Cash

R&Co Bank can also hold Cash for you. R&Co WM UK or R&CoBI, as relevant, may give R&Co Bank instructions about investing your Cash as part of the investment services provided to you. There is more information in the Application Form about the authorities you give to R&Co Bank in this respect. Please contact your Client Adviser if you would like more information about how custody for your Cash is managed.

R&Co Bank provides information in the Costs and Charges Disclosure about interest on any credit balances in the Custody Account, as well as the indicative costs for any foreign exchange transactions. You can find the latest rates on R&Co Bank's website here under the headings "Private Client Lending – Standard interest rates": www.rothschildandco.com/en/wealth-management/switzerland/client-corner/

WILL DO

WHAT THIS MEANS

If you owe us money, R&Co Bank can consolidate, set-off or transfer any sum(s) held for you in the Portfolio (including any Cash).

R&Co Bank can make any necessary adjustments to a Custody Account we operate for you to correct errors or omissions, for example to correct an incorrect entry to a bank account. We don't need your consent to make these types of adjustments.

5. What you can expect of us

TOPIC	SUMMARY
How we communicate with you	In your Application Form, we asked you to select how you would like us to communicate to you and to what postal address, telephone number, fax number or email address. We will continue to communicate in this manner unless you tell your Client Adviser otherwise. R&Co WM UK and R&Co BI are required by our regulators to record our telephone conversations. We reserve the right to use these in any disputes which may arise.
We prize confidentiality	We will not disclose confidential information to third parties except where permitted under our legal agreement, required by law or otherwise reasonably required by other parties (e.g. our professional advisers). We will need your consent to share confidential information in any situations not permitted by our legal agreement.
Data protection	We handle all personal data that we receive and collect in accordance with the applicable laws. Please see the relevant Data Privacy Notice for further information.
Our liability to you	We will be liable to you if our negligence, wilful default or fraud causes you to suffer loss in connection with our services.
In the event of your incapacity or death	If you become incapable of managing your affairs, we will not carry out further transactions on the Portfolio or Account except if you have appointed an attorney to act on your behalf in this situation, or where a deputy has been appointed by a competent authority. In the event of your death, your successors in title will continue to be bound by our legal agreements until it's ended by your personal representative. Before receiving a certified copy of any grant of representation (known as probate), we will take limited action in relation to your Account and Portfolio. The legal agreement contains more details about what we will continue to do in these scenarios.

Changes to the agreement	We can make changes to the agreement. For investment services: Where the change is a result of applicable law or regulation, we can make this change immediately. If we do this, we will give you notice in writing. For other changes, we can do this only by giving you at least 30 Business Days' notice in writing. For custody services: We will tell you in writing if we make changes to our General Business Conditions, or by other appropriate means. If you do not object in writing within 30 days, we will assume that you have approved the change.
Governing Law and Courts	Investment services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ where provided by R&Co WM UK, English law and courts will govern our agreement with you. ▪ where provided by R&CoBI, Guernsey law and courts will govern our agreement with you. Custody services: Swiss law and courts will govern our agreement with you.

6. What information we provide to you

This page summarises the information and reports we will provide to you on an ongoing basis, throughout our relationship with you.

TOPIC	SUMMARY
Valuations and reports – how often we provide these to you	Where we provide Discretionary Investment Management or Advisory Investment Management services for your Portfolio, we provide you with a quarterly Portfolio statement. If you would like more frequent valuations, please contact your Client Adviser. Where you use eAccess (our online client portal), you are able to access your current valuations and information about your Portfolio at any time. We provide a report summarising the costs and charges for your Portfolio on an annual basis. Unless you request otherwise, we will send you a contract note confirming the details of the trades we execute for you.

7. What we ask of you

TOPIC	SUMMARY
Please ask questions	It is important to us that you understand how our relationship works. We recommend reading the legal agreement in detail. If there is anything you don't understand or would like more information at any point during our relationship please do speak to your Client Adviser.
Updating us about you	Should there be a material change to the information which you have provided to us, we will need you to tell us promptly. This includes any changes relating to your tax residence, nationality, your financial circumstance or risk tolerance. If you are a corporate entity, we also need information about people connected to you, such as owners, directors and trustees. We also ask you to tell us if anything changes which might affect the information in the Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. This includes any changes to the investment restrictions which apply to you or an entity you're linked to. If you are unsure whether we need to know about any change or update, please contact your Client Adviser.
How to give us instructions	You are able to give us instructions, acknowledgements or requests via multiple channels. You can do so by emailing us, sending them to our postal address, telephoning us (we will confirm the instruction in writing) or giving us written instructions by hand. Please address these communications to either your Client Adviser or the Head of Compliance. We may refuse instructions at our discretion, including where we think the instruction may not be genuine, or may be incomplete or inaccurate. Please tell us about changes to how you are instructing us to provide the services e.g. if there are changes to your authority if you act as agent for another person.
Joint Accounts	If you have a joint Portfolio or Account, you are each responsible for any fees, costs or changes. There is more information about how we provide services to a joint Portfolio or Account in the legal agreement.

Paying Fees and expenses	You have agreed to pay our fees, costs and charges. You can find our annual fees in the Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review. You are also responsible for the payment of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ third party charges (e.g. broker commissions); ▪ any taxation, transfer fees, registration fees; and ▪ all other liabilities, charges, costs and expenses payable or incurred by us in connection with providing you with the services. We deduct these from cash which is available in your Portfolio. If there is not enough cash available in the Portfolio, we can sell Assets in your Portfolio to allow the full amount owed to be paid. We can charge you interest on unpaid amounts if you don't pay us within 30 days after the invoice date at our prevailing overdraft rate for the relevant currency. We provide you with an annual summary of the costs and charges. You can request a breakdown of the costs and charges at any time by contacting your Client Adviser.
Tell us if something is wrong	Please tell us as soon as possible if there are unauthorised or incorrect payments to or from your Custody Account. If your email has been hacked or your email account may no longer be secure, you should tell us as soon as soon as possible and follow up in writing.
Respond to requests for information	We need to have up to date information about you, to allow us to provide our services. You should tell us if there are any changes to information relevant to our services or our relationship. We may need to ask you for information during our relationship to comply with our legal or regulatory obligations e.g., information about your identity and information related to tax reporting. We ask that you provide us with the information promptly as without it we may not be able to carry on with our services to you. If you're not sure whether you need to update or change any information, please contact your Client Adviser.

Tax and tax reporting	You should consult with your own tax advisors about your tax position. We will, where possible, take into account any restrictions stated in the Portfolio Strategy and Investment Suitability Review relating to your tax position. However, we will not be responsible for ensuring you do not suffer adverse tax consequences. We may need to share information about your Account with tax authorities in different countries to comply with our obligations and you have authorised us to do this in the Terms and Conditions and the Application Form. We may need to ask you for information to help us to do this. We need to know when a declaration, in relation to your tax arrangements, may be made by you or your advisors to a tax authority. This is required by tax regulation, for example under DAC 6. There is more information in the Terms and Conditions about these requirements. You should ask your tax advisor if you are unsure about these requirements. We can deduct taxation from any payment if obliged to do so under law or contract. It is your responsibility to submit tax returns to the revenue authorities in any relevant jurisdiction.
